A second branch in the eastern district

Pitch deck

The eastern district is underserved and two rivals have already opened.

Demand in the district grew faster than the city average.

- The nearest rivals are discount formats, so a full-service branch is differentiated.

The branch reaches break-even in the second year and pays back in the fourth.

The estimate assumes a constant price and no new entrant.

We recommend proceeding with the branch, conditional on the lease terms.